

PROSPECTUS
of the Memphis Avalanche,
Daily Tri-Weekly and Weekly NEWSPAPER, and the express and herald institute the publication of a new paper, now seen in commanding and prominent enterprise. We have, however, made arrangements which the paper beyond the reach of control by the Anti-Slavery Bill, therefore, to be on the 1st day of January.

It is now apprehended to us to add to the already responsible importance of papers now published in this city, believing that Memphis is destined to be one of the largest and most important in the South, and that we can discern no ground that has not yet been occupied. We mark in the appearance of every assurance that appears in every paper now published in this city, as prepared to lavish upon the people. We come, not as the rival, but the successor, of the old established newspaper in all that concerns the growth and prosperity of the city and community generally. We shall bring to the fact no less than will never weary, an example of many cases, and as we have an extended acquaintance in this and the young States, it is our confident expectation to give the paper a circulation equal to anything between Louisville and Nashville.

We are fully aware that those generalizing the largest promises are not of the poorest performances; we therefore prefer that the reader should see an opinion of the Avalanche from itself. Consequently, we shall leave for the present that the paper be published Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly, and will commence with a capital of twenty thousand dollars, two thousand Weekly subscribers, and seven hundred Daily subscribers. It will be essentially Democratic, but independently according to wear the collar of aristocracy—the bond and parasite. The men of no party, the tool of no clique or organ of no faction, the Avalanche is the firm, fearless, and honest exponent of the great cardinal principles on which rests the Democratic party, a warm and zealous supporter and leader of the men whose elevation is due to give permanency and strength these principles.

Upon the subject of Slavery—a subject which has impelled the nation—the Avalanche will be ultra; an ardent advocate of the rights of the South. The feather has been laid upon the camel's back. The South, wronged, outraged by Northern traitors, is fast rising, and will soon present a solid unbroken column. While we will in every patriotic effort to stay the swell of fanaticism, to quell the spirit of dissension and preserve the Republic, we shall, at the same time maintain that the only Union worth preserving is a Constitutional Union—a Union of slavery. Indeed an ardent defense of Civil Rights will be a leading characteristic of the paper. It will make bitter an unrelenting war upon the Northern states, who, in their holy crusade upon the South, are willing to trample the constitution under their unbuckled feet, and will pursue with still more bitterness those Southern ingrates who are ready to palliate and excuse any opression upon the rights of the South.
The Avalanche will apprise populations of usurpations wherever found. It will start with a true pencil and hold up to the eyes of the people all designing magicians, imposters, and humbuggy scoundrels.

Believing, now, knowing—that a high-minded morality is the basis of good government, the Avalanche will lash with sever and unmerited severity, vice and immorality of every phase.

Every department of the paper will be carefully filled, and will contain the news of the day, local intelligence, reports of markets, telegraphic news, and the political events of the day.

TERMS:
Daily Avalanche, $10—Tri-Weekly, $5; Weekly, $3.

THE GLOBE:
THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CONGRESS

I PUBLISH AND EDIT THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CONGRESS, AND APPROPRIATELY CALL IT THE GLOBE. I am the author of the Globe, and believe that it may deserve to be so called, for Congress will soon be in session, and Congress will be the Globe of next December, when I shall commence publishing the Official Paper. They have been published as long, but none previous to them have been so well received. I desire to give a minute account of the kind of service they will render.

The Globe will contain a report of the debates in both branches of Congress, as taken down by reporters equal, at least, to any corps of shorthand writers in this, or in any other country. A majority of them will, each, be able to report, verbatim, ten thousand words an hour, while the average number of words spoken by four speakers easily exceeds seven thousand five hundred words an hour. When the debates of a day do not make more than forty columns, they shall appear in the Globe of the next morning, which will contain, also, the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be suggested by passing events.

It is also my intention, from time to time, as occasion may require, to publish my reminiscences of the public men with whom I have been associated during the last twenty-eight years. Anecdotes of General Jackson, and the leaders of the party which he commanded, and the leading men of other parties, will be interesting now when party bitterness has abated.

In becoming the reporter of the debates of Congress, I deemed it proper to say that the Globe would never be a partisan paper. This pledge will not be forfeited by introducing as a contribution to history the political traits of character which distinguished the public men of my time. Although I am, and intend to remain, a thorough Democrat, I will never obtrude my principles in a way to make them obnoxious to any party. But in regard to persons and events which go to make up history, I hope to make the Globe an honest memoir; and with that view I am resolved to speak independently of all parties.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix will contain a report of all the Debates in Congress, revised by the speakers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, in book form, royal quartos size, each number containing sixteen pages. The whole will make it, it is believed, between 2,200 and 3,000 pages, as the long sessions for many years have ranged between those numbers, and the next session will be what is termed a "long one." This I believe is the cheapest work ever sold in any country, whether reprinted, or printed from manuscript copy, calculating according to the number of words printed. So strong is my belief in this, that I hereby agree to give any person who shall prove it to be erroneous, a complete set of the work running back to the year 1820, making forty-three quartos volumes, which sell for $10 a volume. I pay my reporters $12 a page for the manuscript of my work. As a copy of Congress authorizes these papers to go by mail free of postage. The next session will be, without doubt, an unusually interesting one, as it will be the first under a new Administration, and several complex questions must be discussed in it; for example, the currency, Kansas, revenue, and other questions. The Globe will be, as heretofore, the only source from which full debates can be obtained.

TERMS:
For a copy of the Daily Globe for one year, $10—six months, $5—during the session, $3. For a copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix, and the Laws passed during the session, $5.

Bank notes, current in the section of country where a subscriber resides, will be received at par. The whole or any part of the subscription may be remitted in postage stamps, which is preferable to any currency, except gold or silver.

A paper will not be sent unless the money accompanies the order for it.
